Is your organization prepared for an immigration-related site visit or I-9 audit from the U.S. government?

WHAT EVERY BUSINESS OWNER SHOULD KNOW

Developments in U.S. Immigration Law and Update on U.S. Enforcement Efforts

- U.S. Federal agents have made more than 1,100 criminal arrests tied to worksite enforcement since 2008
- Employers can face criminal and civil penalties up to $16,000 and/or 5 years imprisonment for knowingly employing unauthorized workers

Michael Wildes, a Managing Partner of the prestigious immigration law firm Wildes & Weinberg P.C., along with his father and firm founder, Leon Wildes, have successfully represented St. Thomas organizations and individuals for over 5 decades.

Please join us on Monday, March 1, 2010 at 7.00 pm sharp at the Cultural Center for this very important presentation and learn how to safeguard your business.

Interested parties may also reach Michael directly at (347) 203-6355 or mwildes@wildeslaw.com to schedule a free private consultation during his stay. Michael will be here thru Wednesday, March 3, 2010

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Pash Daswani
Acting President
